

A trip for children and teenagers aged 11-18 from all over Poland. Participants are assigned to international groups on-site, where they take part in language lessons and afternoon activities. Students learn English from Monday to Friday. During the course, supervision is provided by The Cyprus School of English by Xenion Education; for the flight, the participants are accompanied by an adult from Poland.

Xenion Education

The year-round boarding school offers an excellent combination of learning English and a holiday full of fun during the summer. Highly trained and experienced IB school teachers and caregivers will ensure that children and teenagers have a schedule filled with interesting and valuable lessons, outdoor activities, and simply good fun. The school's location in Cyprus is a great advantage and a guarantee of sunny weather.
